THE white light was on Bar Harbor last week, as regards the pleasures offered to President and Mrs. Taft and their party from the Mayflower, and will be at Newport in early September, when the President will be Senator and Mrs. Wetmore's guest at their villa. He has a Y. M. C. A. corner stone to lay, an army and navy parade and a horse show to enjoy with Mrs. Taft and their party. Mrs. Nicholas Anderson, who has Mrs. Nicholas Longworth staying with her, and Mrs. Franklin Ellis were conspicuous in the private hospitalities for the Tafts last week at Bar Harbor, which were as delightful as they were informal.

Newport will have two debutantes this season, the first being Miss Roberta Willard, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Joseph H. Willard, whose coming-out party will be next Saturday, and Miss Elizabeth S. Sands, daughter of Mr. Frederick P. Sands, who has taken August 2 for her presentation, which will be at her mother's residence, on Greenough place.

Newport society is very keenly interested in the tableaux which are to be given August 23 for charity. A billion dollars will be represented by the tableaux, which are being drilled by Prince Troubetzkoy and Miss Jeanne Wallach, and if only half of the program, as outlined, is given, the entertainment will be highly attractive.

The presence of the Atlantic fleet, which will arrive in Narragansett bay August 15, is going to give another delightful fillip to the season at Newport. Rear Admiral Raymond P. Rodgers has named a committee to arrange the hospitalities for Rear Admiral Schroeder and the officers of the fleet, for whom August 19 Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Berwind will give a dance. Other members of the committee are, including Mr. and Mrs. James B. Hazen and Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs, are planning social events in honor of the officers.

A marriage of interest took place July 11 at the bride's home, this city, when Miss Lillian Walbridge Thompson and Mr. Percy Norton, sister of Grace Baptist Church. The ceremony took place under the spreading branches of a large tree in the garden, in the presence of the bride's sisters and brothers.

The bride was dressed in a becoming traveling suit of light brown serge, with hat to match. She wore a corsage bouquet of white roses. Mr. and Mrs. Norton left immediately by automobile for Union station, accompanied by the bride's relatives, where they boarded the 10 o'clock train for Detroit, their future home.

The marriage of Miss Emeline Virginia Middleton and Mr. E. Mora Davison of New York city, which will take place next Wednesday noon at St. Mark's Church, Capitol Hill, will be followed by a wedding breakfast at the Middleton home, 1212 12th street, for the out-of-town relatives to meet the bride party.

The bride-elect is the daughter of the late Rear Admiral Edward Middleton, U. S. N., of South Carolina, her grandfather, Henry Middleton, having been Governor of South Carolina and minister to Russia for several years and in Philadelphia, where she is closely connected, through her cousins, with the Fisher, Kane, Cox and Caldwell families.

Mr. Davison is a son of the late Edward P. Davison, a prominent New York banker and former consul general from the Argentine Republic to the United States. Mr. Davison has been connected for many years with the banking house of August Belmont & Co. and has represented that firm as officer and director in many of the important corporations of the Harvard and Century clubs of New York city. He will take his bride for a honeymoon tour of Europe and they will make their residence in New York city on their return.

Miss Maria Reynolds will be maid of honor, and Mr. William Parker of New York will be best man. The ushers will be Mr. Edward Curtis and Mr. Francis Shaw Curtis of Boston, Mr. Kenneth L. Caswell of New York city and Mr. George Otis Winston of this city.

Some of the out-of-town relatives expected for the ceremony will be Mr. and Mrs. George Curtis, sister of the bridegroom, and her daughter, Miss Margaret Curtis, and Miss Mabel Davison, another sister of the bridegroom, who is now in New York. Miss Brinton Cox of Philadelphia, Miss Nihon Newton of New York, Mr. John Wilson Brown of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Rosa Brown of Baltimore and Mrs. William E. Keller of Scranton, Pa.

Miss Blanche L. Klopfer, daughter of Mrs. C. V. Klopfer, and Mr. Noble D. Larner will be bridesmaids. The ceremony of the Eastern Presbyterian Church, Rev. Charles L. Neibel officiating, tomorrow afternoon at 4:45. The bride will wear a traveling dress and the couple will leave at once for Seneca, N. Y., to visit the bride's sister, Mrs. J. D. Brooke of that city. On their return to town they will live at 1629 Newton street.

Miss May Howard and Dr. Walter A. Bloedorn, U. S. N., will be married Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Howard, 2725 13th street. A reception will follow the ceremony. Dr. S. Wren Howard will escort his sister, who will be attended by Mrs. Joseph Stotsberg and Miss Frances Edward-Smith. Dr. Raymond Spear, U. S. N., will be best man. Dr. Bloedorn will take his bride to Mare Island, Cal., where he will be stationed for the present. She will later accompany to the Philippines. Tonight Miss Howard will entertain the bridal party at supper at the New Willard.

A Newport bride for early September will be Miss Irene Sherman, daughter of Mr. William W. Sherman, whose engagement to Mr. Laurence Gillespie, son of Gen. and Mrs. Gillespie of this city, was announced several months ago. Miss Sadie Jones of Boston will be among her bridesmaids at the ceremony, which is scheduled for September 8 at Trinity Church.
